British Columbia's Premier Has Majority of 338 Over Houston, Independent

VICTORY FOLLOWS VICTORIA DEFEAT

Opposition Forces, Conservative and Provincials Supported to Retire Leader

NELSON, B.C., Aug. 24.—Premier Oliver, Nelson's member of parliament for the constituency, a crowd of 100 seeing him off for his return to the province, where he will be met by a large number of his supporters.

NELSON, B.C., Aug. 24.—Premier John Oliver was elected Saturday to represent Nelson riding in the provincial legislature, his majority over Harry Houston, independent, the nominee of the Citizens' Party, being 338. Mr. Oliver polled 1,152 votes while Mr. Houston received 788.

The by-election here was brought about by the resignation of Kenneth Campbell, Liberal, who gave up his seat to provide a riding for the premier who was defeated in Victoria in the general elections of June 23.

The contest was a short and sharp one. The opposition forces, Conservative and Provincials, took part in the fight, the latter being the party and their lieutenant supported the premier.

Mr. Oliver, who had been defeated in the general election, was not expected to win. He was, however, elected by a large majority.

Decrease in Value of Cattle and Sheep During Past Year

ALBERTA SHOWS INCREASE IN NUMBERS OF DAIRY CATTLE

Lead All Other Provinces in Sheep Shipments—Smaller Number of Cattle Shipped to Calgary and Edmonton Stockyards—Toronto Stockyards Show Increase

Figures are now available showing the activities in the livestock industry throughout Canada for the year 1923, the value of the herds, and the distribution of cattle throughout the provinces. There is a decline in the number of stock in Canada of 475,638, and a total decline of value of $19,109,400.

There is a considerable drop in the number of cattle on farms and ranches in Alberta in 1923 over the year 1922, but the table shows there is a considerable increase in the number of milch cows being used throughout the province.

There was an actual decrease of 32,318 head of cattle throughout Alberta for 1923, but the value of the cattle held on Alberta farms has appreciated by $191,000 over the total value of 1922. The value of Alberta cattle has increased in the case of milch cows on an average one dollar per head, and in all other cattle two dollars per head.

Shipments of cattle to the stock yards at Calgary and Edmonton show a considerable falling off. The decrease registered was 4,471 head of cattle, valued at $238,880. There is also a falling off in the number of calves marketed through this medium, and a decrease of 4,471 head of calves, valued at $238,880. There is also a falling off in the number of calves marketed through this medium, and a decrease of 4,471 head of calves, valued at $238,880.

There is a decrease of 21,292 head in the number of sheep on farms and ranches in Alberta, but there is an increase in value amounting to $1,441,680. The increase in value is accounted for by the fact that Alberta's sheep produce a higher price per head than the other provinces.

The international movement of calves in 1923 was comparatively small, compared with other provinces. The largest shipment was to the United States, valued at $1,441,680. The largest shipment was to the United States, valued at $1,441,680.

Imported Stock. Of the total imported 42,700 head, for improvement of the breed. The total cash value of Canadian cattle exports for 1923 amounted to $1,441,680.

Prices for sheep and lambs were higher in 1923 than in 1922. The average price on all markets was $11.47 in 1923, and $11.45 in 1922.

Increase in Local Egg Prices Go Into Effect Here Today

Eggs went up three cents per dozen this morning. Local produce dealers are now quoting 25 cents per dozen for extras, first 22 cents, seconds 16 cents and cracks 10 cents.

The demand for eggs outside of the province is increasing and dealers report that there is little difficulty in getting rid of all they can get. The production has fallen off some during the past few weeks. The reduced receipts and the improved outside market are the two reasons for increase in price.

BUYING STEADY

Most of the Standard Industrials Were Under Pressure

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Stock prices slipped to lower ground under the weight of another large volume of profit-taking and short selling in Saturday's brief session. ### Vegetable School Fair Association Have Good Prize List

(By Bulletin Correspondent)

The Vegetable School Fair Association have completed arrangements for the annual fair which is to be held September 5. The prize list has been put out and is a fairly large booklet. Prices are being offered for art, needlework, gardening, grain clubs, pig clubs and poultry.

The School Fair Association includes 19 schools in the immediate district, and present indications are that the show will be quite heavy. Some of the children have splendid poultry and pigs to exhibit, and the competition will be quite keen in most of these classes.

WINNIEP, Aug. 23. Further weakness developed in the wheat market here today, due mainly to heavy offerings from United States interests and after a firm opening prices fell away the October futures touching a low of 1.25, the total break in the past two days
